

Announcements and Upcoming Events

DESIGNATED GIVINGS # 215 for the month of September will be in support of Doctors Without Borders, who speak and act in the language of caring and service. When our hearts go out to faraway places where people are suffering deadly diseases and disasters, these skilled and courageous men and women are the answer to our prayers.

ST. PAUL'S FOOD BOOTH –

Here we are end of September with the Lindsay Exhibition behind us for another year. It was a very successful year with good weather but. After all is said and done, it is YOU volunteers who make it all happen. It would be literally impossible without your dedication. Thank you everyone for your enthusiasm and personal contribution. You should feel very proud of what you have accomplished.

Ray Marshal and the Fair Booth Committee.

ST. PAUL'S BOOK CLUB will meet on Tuesday October 1st for dinner at 5:30
at the home of Shirley Hanes,
13 Melbourne St. West (705 878-1632.)

This month we discuss the book "The Flight Attendant". By Chris Bohjalian

GUEST SPEAKER OCTOBER 6TH - The Rev. Leigh Kern is the Diocese's Coordinator of Indigenous Ministries and Reconciliation Animator. In her position, Leigh creates spaces where Indigenous wisdom, knowledge, and leadership can shine and be shared with the broader community. She completed her studies in divinity at Yale University, and has been involved in street outreach and ministry for over a decade. In her current position, she serves as a chaplain to Indigenous Prisoners at Toronto South Detention Centre, and helps run a Sharing Circle for street-involved people in downtown Toronto.

➡ TRC's Calls To Action -Calls to Churches.

60. We call upon leaders of the church parties to the Settlement Agreement and all other faiths, in collaboration with Indigenous spiritual leaders, Survivors, schools of theology, seminaries, and other religious training centres, to develop and teach curriculum for all student clergy, and all clergy and staff who work in Aboriginal communities, on the need to respect Indigenous spirituality in its own right, the history and legacy of residential schools and the roles of the church parties in that system, the history and legacy of religious conflict in Aboriginal families and communities, and the responsibility that churches have to mitigate such conflicts and prevent spiritual violence

Would you like to learn more about this territory from Inuit, Metis and First Nations voices? Please join the conversation on reconciliation.

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 6th – 1:30 p.m. St. Paul's Lindsay
You are invited to a free film screening of the DOCTRINE OF DISCOVERY
Stolen Lands, Strong Hearts

Please join the Reverend Leigh Kern, Reconciliation Animator for The Anglican Diocese of Toronto for a facilitated conversation and viewing of this ground breaking documentary. The Doctrine of Discovery was created 500 years ago and has had an ongoing impact on Indigenous Nations, all Canadians, property laws, legal frameworks and the foundations of our society.
