

Foreword

All Our Days combines the daily Prayer Cycle of the Diocese of Toronto with the psalms and readings from the Daily Office Lectionary and the Eucharistic readings for Sundays and Feasts so that each day we may more easily unite in a common voice of prayer, holding one another before God in our various ministries.

All Our Days is intended to be a handy reference for parishes and individuals, not a full guide to the services of the Church. Full details of the services of the Church year are provided in the annual “Ordo”, McCausland’s Order of Divine Service, published by the ABC, following Year A of the Sunday Eucharistic Lectionary and Year 1 of the Daily Office Lectionary. Every effort has been made to ensure that All Our Days follows the provisions of the Ordo, and where All Our Days might have been swamped with detail, reference is given to the Ordo instead. Please note that the Sunday Eucharistic Readings in the most recent printing of the BAS follow the Revised Common Lectionary.

At the time of print, the joint prayer cycle of the Anglican Church of Canada and the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Canada was unavailable for this 2011 All Our Days. We are sorry that we are unable to include it. We also regret that space does not permit us to include the world-wide Anglican Cycle of Prayer in this book. The entire cycle can be found at www.anglicancommunion.org/acp/.

Please note that in the daily listings,

- Eucharistic readings for Sundays and Feasts are in italics and underlined.
- Daily Office readings are in roman type.
- Where Psalm 95 is appointed in the psalms for the day, it is to be said or sung in full as the invitatory in place of the selection on p. 49 of the BAS.
- Where [] parenthesis are used, the readings within, signify alternative readings, if so desired.
- Where () parenthesis are used, the readings within, signify additional readings, if so desired.

The pages can be copied into bulletins, and you can write to allourdays@toronto.anglican.ca to receive more copies for individual use.

This 2011 All Our Days has been prepared by the Reverend Dr. William Craig with my assistance and support. We have also greatly appreciated the incorporated feedback we have received over the past year, from a wide variety of sources.

The Venerable Peter Fenty
Executive Officer to the Archbishop of Toronto
Archdeacon of York
