A Celtic Prayer

sent in by Lorna Green

May the Christ who walks on wounded feet walk with us on the road.

May the Christ who serves with wounded hands stretch out our hands to serve.

May the Christ who loves with a wounded heart open our hearts to love.

May we see the face of Christ in everyone we meet and may everyone we meet see the face of Christ in us.

Blessed is the one who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. They will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream.

Jeremiah 17:7-8

DESIGNATED GIVINGS # 215 for the month of May is to Archbishop MacDonald's Fund for Non-stipendiary Indigenous Clergy. "Indigenous ministry across the Anglican Church of Canada, is characterized by two main ideas: providing more direct and concrete support to unpaid clergy, and providing support through development of ministry in local communities."

Bloom Where You Are Planted can mean many things depending on where it is used.

May we Blossom and become all you were created to be.

May we Make the best of what we have even if life throws lemons at you.
