WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO KEEP BUSY THESE DAYS.?

send pictures in and let us know.

Many of you have already heard that Valerie, our church secretary, fell last week on some ice. She has broken both wrists and her humerus bone.

She is home now after spending a few days in the hospital. She thanks everyone for your thoughtfulness and prayers. Special thank you to her husband, Ed Call, and her friend Wanda, for being her fingers to get emails and this edition out to the congregation.

For those that wonder, when you break both wrists, the hospital band goes on your ankle. :)

Online Church Services

We will be posting our services (and/or sermons) each week until we are able to safely meet again in person.

You may watch the video on our church website st-pauls-lindsay.ca, or Facebook or on YouTube.

A new account has been set up for our church at Kent Bookstore. Used books may be brought to the bookstore and the store will give a credit to our new account for the purchase of new books.

Support our local businesses as they support our community. 15 William N.

DESIGNATED GIVINGS # 215 for the month of March will be in support of Yukon Diocese. The problem: there were once 15 paid Anglican clergy throughout The Yukon. Now, with retirements and fewer National and Northern Church resources, many communities have none. The solution: their fellow Christians—ourselves, helping to support the pastoral care so many in The Yukon long for.
