Jubilate Hymn #425 Joyful, Joyful, We Adore Thee
1ST READING: Isaiah 5:1-7

Let me sing for my beloved my love-song concerning his vineyard: My beloved had a vineyard on a very fertile hill. He dug it and cleared it of stones, and planted it with choice vines; he built a watch-tower in the midst of it, and hewed out a wine vat in it; he expected it to yield grapes, but it yielded wild grapes. And now, inhabitants of Jerusalem and people of Judah, judge between me and my vineyard. What more was there to do for my vineyard that I have not done in it? When I expected it to yield grapes, why did it yield wild grapes? And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard. I will remove its hedge, and it shall be devoured; I will break down its wall, and it shall be trampled down. I will make it a waste; it shall not be pruned or hoed, and it shall be overgrown with briars and thorns; I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it. For the vineyard of the Lord of hosts is the house of Israel, and the people of Judah are his pleasant planting; he expected justice, but saw bloodshed; righteousness, but heard a cry!

Epistle Hymn #320 Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones
2ND READING: Hebrews 11:29-12:2

By faith the people passed through the Red Sea as if it were dry land, but when the Egyptians attempted to do so they were drowned. By faith the walls of Jericho fell after they had been encircled for seven days. By faith Rahab the prostitute did not perish with those who were disobedient, because she had received the spies in peace. And what more should I say? For time would fail me to tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets— who through faith conquered kingdoms, administered justice, obtained promises, shut the mouths of lions, quenched raging fire, escaped the edge of the sword, won strength out of weakness, became mighty in war, put foreign armies to flight. Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, refusing to accept release, in order to obtain a better resurrection. Others suffered mocking and flogging, and even chains and imprisonment. They were stoned to death, they were sawn in two, they were killed by the sword; they went about in skins of sheep and goats, destitute, persecuted, tormented— of whom the world was not worthy. They wandered in deserts and mountains, and in caves and holes in the ground. Yet all these, though they were commended for their faith, did not receive what was promised, since God had provided something better so that they would not, without us, be made perfect. Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight and the sin that clings so closely, and let us run with perseverance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus the pioneer and perfecter of our faith, who for the sake of the joy that was set before him endured the cross, disregarding its shame, and has taken his seat at the right hand of the throne of God.

THE HOLY GOSPEL Luke 12:49-56 (Please stand, as you are able)
“Glory to you, Lord Jesus Christ”

‘I came to bring fire to the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! I have a baptism with which to be baptized, and what stress I am under until it is completed! Do you think that I have come to bring peace to the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division! From now on, five in one household will be divided, three against two and two against three; they will be divided: father against son and son against father, mother against daughter and daughter against mother, mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.’ He also said to the crowds, ‘When you see a cloud rising in the west, you immediately say, “It is going to rain”; and so it happens. And when you see the south wind blowing, you say, “There will be scorching heat”; and it happens. You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of earth and sky, but why do you not know how to interpret the present time?’

RECESSIONAL HYMN – Choice of 4
#532 What A Friend We Have in Jesus
#786 Old Rugged Cross (Blue Book)

1 On a hill far away stood an old rugged cross, The emblem of suffering and shame; And I love that old cross where the dearest and best For a world of lost sinners was slain.	2 O that old rugged cross, so despised by the world, Has a wondrous attraction for me; For the dear Lamb of God left His glory above To bear it to dark Calvary.
3 In the old rugged cross, stained with blood so divine,	4 To the old rugged cross I will ever be true,

A wondrous beauty I see; For 'twas on that old cross Jesus suffered and died To pardon and sanctify me.	Its shame and reproach gladly I bear; Then He'll call me some day to my home far away, Where His glory forever I'll share.
Refrain So I'll cherish the old rugged cross, Till my trophies at last I lay down; I will cling to the old rugged cross, And exchange it some day for a crown.

#337 Blessed Assurance (Voices United)

1 Blessed assurance. Jesus is mine! O what a foretaste of glory divine! Heir of salvation, purchase of God, born of the spirit, washed in Christ's blood.	2 Perfect submission, perfect delight! Visions of rapture now burst on my sight; angels descending, bring from above echoes of mercy, whispers of love.
3 Perfect submission, all is at rest, I in my Saviour am happy and blessed; watching and waiting, looking above, filled with God's goodness, lost in Christ's love.	Refrain This is my story, this is my song, praising my Saviour all the day long; This is my story, this is my song, praising my Saviour all the day long.

#694 Tell Me the Stories of Jesus (Blue Book)

1 Tell me the stories of Jesus I love to hear; things I would ask him to tell me if he were here; scenes by the wayside, tales of the sea, stories of Jesus, tell them to me.	2 First let me hear how the children stood round his knee, and I shall fancy his blessing resting on me: words full of kindness, deeds full of grace, all in the lovelight of Jesus' face.
3 Into the city I'd follow the children's band, waving a branch of the palm-tree high in my hand; one of his heralds, yes, I would sing loudest hosannas, Jesus is King!	4 Tell me, in accents of wonder, how rolled the sea tossing the boat in a tempest oh Galilee! and how the Master, ready and kind, chided the billows, and hushed the wind.
5 Tell how the sparrow that twitters on yonder tree, and the sweet meadow-side lily may speak to me: Give me their message, for I would hear how Jesus taught us our Father's care.	6 Show me that scene in the garden of bitter pain; and of the Cross where my Saviour for me was slain. sad ones or bright ones, so that they be stories of Jesus, tell them to me.
