Letter From The Editor

Once again, I am sailing off to new adventures! As my schooling is returning to in-person learning, I am passing on my role at the church for the meanwhile. I have had a lovely time here in the office and in the church helping run things, and I know for sure we will cross paths again someday in the future. I deeply thank the church for this wonderful experience.

DESIGNATED GIVINGS # 215 for the month of August will be in support of our Primate's World Relief and Development Fund equity in the Canadian Food Grains Bank. This program allows Canadian farmers to share their harvests with countries facing starvation— a grave global possibility this year according to the U.N. Note: Our donations multiply with matching funds from the Government of Canada.

Season Of Creation

The Season of Creation begins on September 1st! It is a time for churches to come together and reflect on the effect they are having on creation through prayer and action for the church. This year's theme is "Listen to the Voice of Creation," centering on the topic of our environmental effect, with this year's symbol being the burning bush, and this year's highlighted scripture; Exodus 3:1-12, included below. We look forward to the dialogue that will arise during this time.

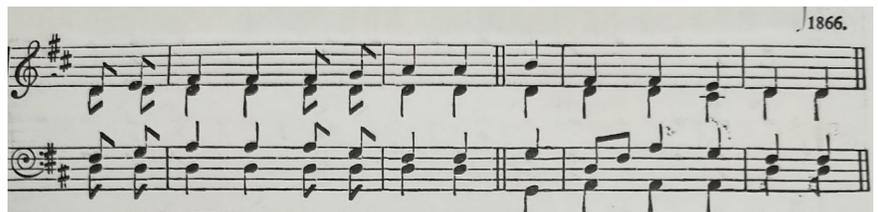

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness, and came to Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, 'I must turn aside and look at this great sight, and see why the bush is not burned up.' When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, 'Moses, Moses!' And he said, 'Here I am.' Then he said, 'Come no closer! Remove the sandals from your feet, for the place on which you are standing is holy ground.' He said further, 'I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' And Moses hid his face, for he was afraid to look at God. Then the Lord said, 'I have observed the misery of my people who are in Egypt; I have heard their cry on account of their taskmasters. Indeed, I know their sufferings, and I have come down to deliver them from the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land to a good and broad land, a land flowing with milk and honey, to the country of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, the Perizzites, the Hivites, and the Jebusites. The cry of the Israelites has now come to me; I have also seen how the Egyptians oppress them. So come, I will send you to Pharaoh to bring my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.' But Moses said to God, 'Who am I that I should go to Pharaoh, and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?' He said, 'I will be with you; and this shall be the sign for you that it is I who sent you: when you have brought the people out of Egypt, you shall worship God on this mountain.'
