St Paul's Foster Children

St Paul's sponsors 6 Foster Children in various parts of the world. The two children pictured here are Schineyda who is 15 and lives in Haiti and Kevin Garcia who is 14 years old and lives in an SOS village in Honduras. All of these children need prayer, but especially those in Haiti as society has totally broken down. Poverty, chaos and violence are rampant. For those in the congregation who remember Karangwa he is doing well and now lives and works in Edmonton.

Queen Victoria School

At the back of The Church is a bin marked with the schools name, some students attending this school, are in need of the following items socks, mitts, snow boots size 7, 3,4 and 4 1/2. Our sisterhood group will continue to knit hats and mittens for this school and for King Albert School
